

A white fishing boat with a mast and radar dome is moving across a deep blue ocean, leaving a white wake. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds. In the distance, a low-lying coastline with some buildings is visible.

REEL TIME

CREW PROFILES

MARCUS PAROTTI | CAPTAIN

With a past of commercial and recreational fishing throughout the Bahamian waters, Marcus was given many opportunities by great fishermen to learn and expand his knowledge of the water.

Months before graduating high school, Marcus knew he wanted to become a captain of a fishing yacht.

At the age of 18 and after graduating on a Friday, he started his first job as a Captain that following Monday!

Marcus has gained notoriety among fellow seamen as the best fishing captain in the Bahamas, and guests aboard Reel Time will vouch for it.

Being able to put a guest or friend on their targeted species is what he's done best. Fishing is by far not his job, but his passion.

DAVID MAILLIS | FISHING GUIDE

David was born and raised in the island of New Providence, where he has lived and worked on the sea for his entire life.

With over two decades of recreational, commercial and charter fishing, David brings a wealth of local knowledge and experience to the team.

He has also spent time in the conservation world, as the park warden of the Exuma Cays Land and Sea Park, and is best known to guests for his knowledge of the native wildlife and flora of the Bahamas.

When he's not reeling in big fish, David's favorite hobbies include shell collecting, free diving and bird watching.

